Confession Gives Names Of The Ring Leaders In Plot To Kill J. P. Morgan; Receives $30,000 For Job

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WARSAW, Dec. 16.—A man by the name of Wolfe Lindenfeld, alias William Linde, has been arrested by William Linde, has been arrested by the Polish police as a suspect in connection vith the Wall street explosion in New York September 16, 1930. The Warsaw police said they made the arrest at the request of the American department of justice. They claimed to have in their possession the man's full confession of being connected with the disaster.

Lindenfeld is described as a cousi of Rosa Luxemburg, the German radical socialist leader, who was shot to death in Berlin, early in 1919, after flaving been beaten by a mob. His confession, the police state, gives the names of the ring leaders and the names of the ring leaders and the new York City address where the bomb was manufactured and says also that the bomb was intended for J. Inneheon.

The confession as described by the American agents, terms the premature explosion "a mechanical mistake" for which the bomb makers are blamed. Lindenfeld estimated that the bomb exploded from ten to fifteen minutes before the intended time. The plotters also accuse the driver of the wagon which brought the bomb to Wall street of having erred in not leaving the wagon nearer the Morgan office.

The confession as described by the seven were convicted. Sheriff white testified that Mrs. Rodriguez home was so situated that the store at Ruby.

Miss Irene Pearson of Liberty Hill, Tex., sister of the dead postmaster, who was in the store during the raid and who was expected to testify to-day, will be put on the stand when court convenes tomorrow morning, according to an announcement to-day.
